

Main Storage

Earthen two-stories building, Building area 16.52m²

The space in front of the entrance called "Kuramae" has glass windows and was added around 1882, while the vault inside is presumed to have been installed at the same time. The second floor was laid with tatami mats, making it the most prestigious storehouse in the Matsushiro Family Residence.

